The Seminary

Williamsport Dickinson Seminary is a high grade boarding school for both sexes. For sixty-nine years it has been doing its work with constantly increasing efficiency.

Location

Williamsport is called "The Queen City of the West Branch of the Susquehanna River." Statistics prove it to be the healthiest city in the State of Pennsylvania, and it is reported to be the third healthiest city in the United States. It is famous for its picturesque scenery, its beautiful homes, and the culture and the kindness of its people. The Pennsylvania, the Reading, and the New York Central Railroads, with their fast trains, put Williamsport within two hours' reach of Harrisburg, four and a half hours of Philadelphia, and seven hours of Pittsburgh.

Aim

The Seminary aims to fit for college and for life. It prepares students for any college or technical school. For those who do not plan to go to college, it offers exceptionally strong courses leading to appropriate diplomas. The large number of graduates who have gone directly from the Seminary to their life work, and are now filling high positions is the best possible testimony to the educational value of these courses.

Faculty

The Faculty is composed of thoroughly trained, carefully selected Christian men and women. The two ideals they hold before themselves are scholarship and character.

A Home School

Every effort is put forth to make the Seminary as home-like as possible. The instructors live with the students, room on the same halls, eat at the same tables, and strive in every way to win their confidence and friendship.

A School of Culture

The Seminary aims to develop in its students an easy familiarity with the best social forms and customs. Intercourse with young people of both sexes in the dining hall, at receptions and other social functions, together with frequent talks by instructors, do much in this way for both ladies and gentlemen.

A Religious School

The Seminary is a religious school. It is not sectarian. At least four religious denominations are represented on its Board of Directors. Every student is encouraged to be loyal to the church of his parents. But the atmosphere of the school is positively and aggressively religious. Every effort is made to induce students to enter upon the Christian life and be faithful thereto.

Discipline

The Seminary believes that young people can be led better than they can be driven. It strives to inspire its students with high ideals rather than to force them to do right through fear of punishment. But any lawlessness is promptly, and, if necessary, severely dealt with. Those who will not try to do right are not wanted at the Seminary.

The Sexes

The ladies' apartments are entirely separate from the others. Young ladies are chaperoned to all public entertainments. There is no association of the young ladies and gentlemen except in the presence of the instructors.

Athletics

The place of athletics in the life of the modern school is fully recognized. Attendance in the gymnasium is compulsory. Two Physical Directors care for the health of the students and direct their athletic work. One of the finest athletic fields in the State offers every facility for football, baseball, tennis, and other out-door sports.

Buildings

The buildings are of brick. They stand upon an eminence overlooking the city, in the midst of about six acres of beautiful grounds. The rooms are large, airy, and well furnished. The buildings are lighted with electricity, heated with steam, and supplied throughout with hot and cold water and all the modern conveniences. Constant care is exercised to preserve the best sanitary conditions.

Literary Societies

Three literary societies, the Belles Lettres, Gamma Epsilon, and Tripartite Union, with well selected libraries aggregating over two thousand volumes, are maintained by the students.

Library

A reference library is part of the equipment of the Seminary and every effort is made to train the student in an intelligent use of the same.

The James V. Brown Public Library is within two squares of the Seminary. Its large collection of books as well as its courses of lectures and entertainments are freely open to all students of the Seminary.

Special Information

Young people of good moral character may enter the Seminary at any time for a single term or longer.

Applicants must bring certificate of work done and recommendation from school previously attended or from former instructors.

Students from a distance are required to live in the buildings; but those having near relatives residing in Williamsport are sometimes granted permission to make their homes with them.

Students are expected to come on the first day of the term and remain until the last day. Absences from classes, at the beginning or end of holiday recesses, count double and cannot be excused.

Parents should not call their children home during the term. Any absence interferes with good work.

Permits from home are accepted as advices, not mandates. In any case the final decision as to whether a permission will be granted, rests with the President and Faculty. A permit, to be considered, should be mailed directly to the President.

No student shall be considered as having severed his connection with the Seminary until notice has been given and permission obtained from the President.

Students must report at the Seminary immediately upon arrival in Williamsport.

Students should be sparingly supplied with spending money. Whenever desired a member of the Faculty will act as patron, paying weekly such allowances as may be designated, and supervising all expenditures.

The whole outfit for girls should be in good taste but simple and inexpensive. Low-necked dresses, very short sleeves, and elaborate jewelry are not permitted.

Students are not allowed to visit drinking saloons, pool rooms, the theater, or similar places of amusement. Disobedience to this rule will be followed by dismissal.

No firearms of any kind are allowed in the buildings.

Any student, who for disciplinary reasons, is requested to leave the city before a certain time, shall be considered as having expelled himself if he delays his departure beyond the time designated.

The Sabbath must be strictly observed. Attendance upon church services is required of all.

Students are expected to provide themselves with Methodist hymnals (new edition) for use in the chapel service.

Meeting or engaging in conversation by ladies and gentlemen is forbidden except at such times and places as may be arranged for by the Faculty.

Students remaining at the Seminary during the holidays will be charged $1.00 for each day or part of a day.

Guests may be entertained only when the permission of the President has first been obtained and their hosts pay the regular rates for their entertainment. Parents or guardians visiting pupils are for the first twenty-four hours the guests of the Seminary. No visitors are allowed on halls or in the students' rooms without permission.

Everyone who desires to continue as a student of the Seminary must show a reasonable disposition to comply with its regulations. In addition to the above some of the things expected are the following:

To be present at recitations or in his own room during study hours.

To keep his room and furniture in good condition.

To pay at once for any damage done by him to furniture, room, or any part of the grounds and buildings.

To refrain from using tobacco in any form about the buildings or grounds and to abstain from all coarse or profane language.

Not to leave the city or go bathing, boating, skating, fishing, gunning, or riding without permission from the President.

To obtain the permission of the Faculty before dropping any study which has been taken up.

Day students during school hours are under the same regulations as the boarding students. They are required:

To study quietly in the Study Hall when not in actual attendance upon recitations.

To attend the morning chapel services.

To procure from parent or guardian a written excuse for absence from chapel or recitation.

To abstain from all visiting in dormitory halls or in students' rooms during study hours.

One man can arrange for the amount due by him more easily than the Seminary can arrange to carry a deficit caused by the failure of a large number of patrons to pay promptly. We absolutely must insist upon the prompt payment of all bills.

No deduction is made for absence, except in cases of prolonged and serious illness or other unavoidable providence, when the price of board (not tuition, room, etc.,) is refunded. No deduction is made for the first two weeks or the last two weeks of the year.

In order to graduate and receive a diploma or certificate a student must have spent at least one year in study at the Seminary and also have paid all his bills, in cash or its equivalent—not in notes.

Discounts

The charge for tuition to children of ministers who are serving churches in Williamsport and vicinity will be one-half the regular amount.

Special discounts are allowed on the regular $80 and $400 rates to the following:

 - (2) Children of ministers living elsewhere than in Williamsport and vicinity.
 - (3) Students preparing for the ministry or missionary work.
- Not more than one discount will be allowed to any student.

The Seminary reserves the right to withdraw any discount from a student whose work or behavior is unsatisfactory.

The College Preparatory course offered by the Seminary covers the needs of those preparing for college or technical school. The Classical course is more extensive and offers a part of the work usually done in college.

Emphasis will be laid upon thoroughness of work. The Faculty reserves the right to limit the number of studies which any pupil will be allowed to carry.

Students who do not intend to pursue one of the regular courses, with the consent of their parents and the approval of the Faculty, may elect such studies as they desire.

At least two years of any language elected in any course will be required for graduation.

Departments

English Bible

PRESIDENT CONNER.

English Bible is a required study. Every student, whether in a regular course or a special student, is assigned to one of the Bible classes. The effort is made by the use of text books and lectures to acquire a familiarity with the outline and most striking events and characters of Biblical History. (One period a week.)

Ancient Languages

DEAN BLOSSOM.

The practical value of a study of the classics has often been questioned, but nothing has ever been found to take its place. The classics are still retained in the best courses of the best schools, and are pre-eminently adapted to bring the student to an acquaintance with the sources of inspiration of all the literature of succeeding periods.

Every effort is put forth to make the study full of life and interest for the student. Scrupulous attention is given to grammatical structure, the relation of these languages to English, the illustration and application of rules of syntax, accuracy and elegance in translation, and the literary significance of the authors. Prose composition is carried throughout the course. Especial emphasis is laid on translation and composition at sight, and no student will be recommended for admission to college who cannot deal successfully with this part of the work.

Physics. One year is devoted to the study of Physics. Three recitations are held each week and three hours are spent in the laboratory. Forty-five experiments are performed, data recorded, and notes written up in the laboratory. Special effort is put forth to make all determinations accurate so that the facts when organized will show clearly the conclusions or general principles the experiment is intended to develop. A First Course in Physics, Millikan and Gale.

Chemistry. The subject of Chemistry is pursued throughout the year, the course consisting of three recitations and three hours laboratory work each week. Forty-five experiments are completed, the notes recorded and corrected in the laboratory. First Principles of Chemistry, Brownlee and others.

Physical Geography. Physical Geography is taught for one semester. Numerous field trips are taken to various points near Williamsport and reports are made by the students as they proceed to a practical application of the theory acquired in the class-room. Elements of Physical Geography, Hopkins.

Botany. The work in Botany is covered in the second semester. Laboratory exercises are performed by the students. An accurate analysis is made of twenty-five (25) specimens, whose characteristics are ascertained and names determined; the results of this study are preserved in the notebooks opposite each plant examined. Attention is focused particularly upon the manner in which the plant machine accomplishes its work of growth and reproduction. Introduction to Botany, Bergan and Caldwell.

The student is helped to a comprehension of the study by concrete illustrations and careful verbal explanations. In the work of demonstration, clearness and exactness of statement are insisted upon. To develop the student's own powers of reasoning, special emphasis is laid upon original work. Geometry, Wells and Hart.

College Algebra. A course in College Algebra is taken up and completed.

English

PROFESSOR NORTH.

The aim of the work in English is to develop as far as possible, in every student, the power to write and to speak correct English, and to understand and appreciate the best things which others have written. The foundations are carefully laid in a study of formal grammar, which is a requirement for admission to English I. The principles of grammar are constantly reviewed throughout the course. Themes and longer compositions are frequently required. These are examined, corrected, and returned to the pupil for revision or for new work of a similar character. Essays and orations for public delivery are required from all students in English III and IV. The schedule of English classics for college entrance requirements is followed throughout the four years. Careful daily drill in spelling is given throughout the course. Weekly practice in oral English, with emphasis upon its practical application to the present and future needs of the student is an increasingly important phase of the work.

First Year.

Careful drill and review of grammar. Practical exercises are given in order that the student may learn to construct sentences that obey the laws of syntax. Students are taught how to use the dictionary. Reading, Letter Writing, Spelling, and Punctuation are given throughout the year.

Two Years' Course in English Composition, Hanson, is used as a basis for this work as well as for laying the foundation of English composition. Students are drilled in selection of subjects, theme building, paragraphing, clear and correct expression. Attention is paid to oral composition to secure accuracy of speech, Oral English, Brewer, being used as a basis for this work. Two themes per week are required from each student. Daily lessons in High School Speller, Chew.

The classics read and studied are: Sketch Book, Irving; David Copperfield, Dickens; The Lady of the Lake, Scott; Old Testament Stories; Odyssey. Two books, one of them a selection from recent literature, are chosen from a selected list, to be read outside of class.

Second Year.

With the Two Years' Course in English Composition, Hanson, as a text, a careful study of composition is continued through the year. Especial attention is given to sentence building and methods for enlarging and correcting the vocabulary. The rhetorical principles of Unity, Coherence, and Emphasis are carefully studied. The paragraph is made the basis of this systematic study. Two themes per week are required from each student. With Oral English, Brewer, as a text, the work in oral English is continued.

The classics read and studied are: Ivanhoe, Scott; Sir Roger de Coverly Papers, Addison; Merchant of Venice, Shakespeare; Silas Marner, George Eliot; Vision of Sir Launfal, Lowell. Two books, chosen from a selected list, are read outside of class. One of these is a selection from recent literature.

Third Year.

Elements of Composition, Canby and Opdycke, is the text used. Sufficient work is done in poetics to prepare students for understanding and enjoying English poetry. Two themes per week are written and two essays or orations for public delivery are required. Continued emphasis is placed upon oral expression. All students follow Brief English Literature, Howe, in connection with their work in the classics. More extensive courses in American Literature, Long, and English Literature, Halleck, are elective. Daily lessons in High School Spelling Book, Leonard and Fuess.

The classics for this year are: Idylls of the King, Tennyson; Hamlet, Shakespeare; L'Allegro, Il Penseroso, Comus, and Lycidas, Milton; Rime of the Ancient Mariner, Coleridge; and miscellaneous short stories. Two books, chosen from a selected list, are read outside of class. One of these is a selection from recent literature.

Fourth Year.

Elements of Composition, Canby and Opdycke, completed first semester; Essentials of Exposition and Argument, Foster, second semester. Two orations or essays for public delivery are required. Oral English during this year is concerned largely with practice in parliamentary usage and class debating. Two themes per week are written. The elements of debate are carefully studied and practiced.

The following classics are carefully studied: Prologue, Chaucer; Sesame and Lilies, Ruskin; Essay on Burns, Carlyle; Speech on Conciliation, Burke. Two books, chosen from a selected list, are read outside of class. One of these is a selection from recent literature.

ATHLETIC TEAMS, 1916-1917

Psychology, Logic, Ethics, Literature

MISS MACK.

Psychology. The Mind and its Education, Betts. The importance of the study of Psychology as a foundation for the other sciences is emphasized. We endeavor to realize the close connection between Psychology and Life in its varied phases, and the supreme importance of the Good Will in its relation to emotion, intellectual action, and the formation of habit. The lengthened term will allow a resumption of the work in Experimental Psychology.

Logic. Elements of Logic, Jevons-Hill. A brief summary of Aristotelian Logic is followed by a study of the contributions to the science made by the greatest logicians since his day. The inter-relation of Psychology and Logic is shown, and the methods of the other sciences as a part of Logic are duly recognized. The cardinal principles underlying correct reasoning are carefully studied and applied to the detection of fallacy.

Ethics. The work in Ethics seeks to acquaint the student with the ideals of the different ethical schools and to show the reasonableness and necessity of loyalty to high moral standards. The text book is Problems of Conduct, Drake.

Literature. Apart from the required work, more extensive courses are offered in English and American Literature. In addition to the historical study, students are introduced to representative masterpieces and are helped to understand and enjoy what is best in our language. The texts used are History of English Literature, Halleck, and History of American Literature, Long, with supplementary reading.

Economics

PROFESSOR WILLIAMS.

Elements of Economics, Burch and Nearing. This is an introduction to the general field of economics, intended primarily for beginners. More emphasis is laid upon the concrete and practical side of the subject than upon the theoretical. Special attention is given to the study of modern economic problems such as immigration, child labor, conservation of natural resources, the tariff, etc.

Athletics and Physical Training (Boys)

PROFESSOR WILLIAMS.

The object of this department is to promote the general health and the physical and intellectual efficiency of the students. Persistent effort is made to interest everybody in some form of indoor and outdoor sports. All forms of sane and healthful exercise are encouraged, but excesses and extravagances are discouraged. The athletic teams are carefully selected and systematically trained. They are sent into a game to win if they can, but more emphasis is placed upon playing the game fair and straight than upon winning. The Seminary is represented each year in inter-scholastic contests by football, basketball, and baseball teams. We have one of the best athletic fields in the state. Facilities are offered also for those who are fond of tennis, bowling, and other sports.

The Academic Department

MISS HOOVEN.

Young or backward pupils who are not prepared for the work of the regular courses enter the Academic Department. Here regularly graded classes in all the common English branches afford opportunity to take such work as they are fitted for. The work of the last year includes Arithmetic, Milne; Grammar, Pearson & Kirchwey; English Composition; Geography, Mawry; Physiology; Drawing; Map Drawing; United States History, Gordy, McMaster; Reading; Spelling; and Penmanship.

The Junior Department

MISS HOOPER.

A limited number of children over six years of age are received as day pupils. For the accommodation of these a large well lighted school room furnished with all modern equipment is provided. A competent teacher especially trained for this work gives to each pupil an amount of individual attention such as could not under ordinary conditions of school life be given. The special teachers in Art, Expression, and Physical Training give the children lessons in these subjects, and the course of study and methods of instruction are such as are in use in the best primary schools.

Commercial Department

PROFESSOR HILL.

The Seminary has been offering such courses of instruction in Bookkeeping and Business, Stenography and Typewriting, etc., as are usually offered in a Business College, and will continue to do so for the benefit of students who desire to take such work.

But the day has come when the young man or woman who desires to win large success must receive a broader training for his work. From three to four years are spent in a school of law or medicine. Why should there not be an equally thorough training for business? If a boy prepares to enter college by studying for four years the languages and mathematics he will need when he enters upon his work there, why should he not spend three or four years in acquainting himself thoroughly with the theory and practice of business as it is carried on by the great industrial and financial concerns of to-day, getting a grip on the things he will need to use when he steps out into the business world? The attention of parents who have children they desire to prepare for business is especially directed to the new course in Commerce, which, in addition to what has been mentioned, includes a three years' careful drill in those common English branches which are the raw material of all our knowledge, a course in commercial law, and full courses in bookkeeping and in stenography and typewriting. Students entering either the regular or one of the special courses, are charged for tuition, the regular rate of $80 per year. There are no extra charges unless extra work is taken.

The Seminary does not guarantee to get positions for its students, but it has always had more calls for well qualified bookkeepers and stenographers than it could supply.

An advanced course in reporting shorthand is offered to any who may desire to attain higher speed in stenography.

Any further information regarding commercial work will be gladly offered upon request.

Music Department

Each course in this department covers a period of four years. The character of the instruction given and of the work required guarantees the maintenance of the high reputation in music the Seminary has already won.

Students will be admitted to any class for which they are properly prepared.

Pupils taking only one lesson a week cannot as a rule complete any course in this department in the prescribed time.

All candidates for graduation, in either instrumental or vocal music, must have studied and passed satisfactory examinations in Harmony, History of Music, Elements of Music, and Ear Training, and must have appeared in public.

Instruction in History and Elements of Music and Ear Training is free.

No reductions will be made for lessons missed because pupils have failed to present themselves at the time appointed, nor is the teacher under any obligations to make up such lessons with the pupil. No music student is allowed to teach without the consent of the Director of the Music Department.

Piano

MISS EHREN, MISS PARLETTE.

This department is well established, widely known, and largely patronized.

We have never been so well equipped in this particular before.

The Progressive Series of Piano Lessons edited by Godowsky, Emil Sauer, Josef Hofmann, and others has been introduced, and normal classes for teachers and others have been organized. The Seminary is duly authorized by the Art Publication Society to give instruction in normal teacher training, to conduct examinations and issue certificates to those desiring to teach. Pupils of such teachers are entitled to credits for work done which will be recognized wherever the credit system for music has been introduced.

Physical Training (Girls)

MRS. CHURCHILL.

The aim of this work is the care and development of the body by means of appropriate exercises. The results to be achieved are better health, good poise, and the overcoming of such physical defects as will yield to corrective exercises. A portion of the time each week is given to physical culture with the purpose that the body may become free and more graceful. The gymnastic exercises are based on the American and Swedish systems and consist largely of floor work. All the girls are given training in Basketball according to girls' rules.
